He referred to the substantial reduction in the cost of relief during 1936 and hoped that it would still be possible to provide work for all in need. He said a joint Committee, to promote Cornwall as a Tourist Centre, had done excellent work last year and hoped this good work would be continued. A housing scheme had been suggested by the Board of Trade and the Mayor thought this should be thoroughly investigated. again electing him Mayor and although he realized the great responsibility, he felt that with the co-operation and support of Council, the problems could be met with satisfaction to the rate-payers.

Since our last Regular Meeting Death has entered our ranks and weakened our organization by the very sudden and untimely passing of our very capable and much esteemed Clerk and Supervisor, Mr. W. A. Houston.

For the past number of years Mr. Houston held a leading position in the development of our City and to his commercial genius, unfailing tact and gracious courtesy the success and progress of our City was very largely attributable.

It may be stated with confidence that Mr. Houston was a man who, while he had a host of friends, never made an enemy in business, politics or religion, yet he consistently maintained independence of thought. His sterling honesty and his courteous tolerance of opposing views has always ensured him respect.

Cornwall is today poorer by the loss of one of her finest citizens.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the bereaved family who have lost a faithful husband and a loving father, and the City of Cornwall a perfect gentleman.
